Notes for October 1, 1999

- 1. Greetings and Felicitations!
 - a. Go through handouts, class rules
- 2. Puzzle of the day
- 3. How do you design a security policy?
 - a. Risk analysis
 - b. Analysis of other factors:
 - c. Procedures
- 4. Risk analysis
 - a. What are the threats?
 - b. How likely are they to arise?
 - c. How can they best be dealt with?
- 5. Analysis of other factors
 - a. What else affects the policy (federal or state law, needs, etc.)?
 - b. Law: as above; discuss jurisdiction (federal or local), problems (authorities' lack of knowledge about computers, etc.); chain of evidence
 - c. Discuss cryptographic software controls (here, France, etc.)